a. Coordinated Entry Structure Update: Courtney noted working to incorporate CHC 2.0 into the CE process, which was brought to the Coordinated Entry Committee for comments and feedback this week. Due to the number of comments and the desire to make more significant changes, a subcommittee was formed to review before the next CE meeting, which has been delayed by two weeks to accommodate the review process. It was noted that the CoC does

- b. CoC Annual Budget: CoC staff have been meeting with the Finance Team, and will meet with the Finance Committee prior to bringing back to Steering Council for discussion at the March meeting.
- c. Annual Count Universe: Courtney noted issues with how reporting has changed through MCAH and Wellsky, emphasizing the need for consistency and accurate data. Evan shared an initial draft model. There was discussion around incorporating data elements, alignment with future HUD reporting, and what this committee can expect as the report is developed further.
- d. PIT Count Preliminary Report: a very preliminary count overview was shared with this committee, and CoC staff shared some initial observations. There was discussion of concerns from outreach staff around the hesitancy of many individuals to engage with outreach teams due to encampment clean-ups.
- e. CoC Governance Charter Update: skipped
- f. ESG Financial Assistance Report: There was a brief discussion around grant term spending.
